WELLS FARGO

Where there's spirit, there's community

When people come together to celebrate shared beliefs, they create an instant community of the spirit. And before you know it, everyone is participating.

It's a joy to celebrate Diwali Mela 2009.

SHARE THEIR DREAMS

Help them grow
Together, we can do much more!
Dream a little! Do a Little!

Help Them Grow is Vibha's Automatic Donation Program to donate an amount of your choice from your account each month. Vibha directs your funds to programs run by social workers in tribal, rural and urban communities all over India. It is an easy and convenient way for you to bring hope into the lives of needy children. Please complete the attached document and mail it. Because of thoughtful and caring people like you, thousands of children will have a brighter future.

Thank you for contributing over $6000 to Vibha through the United Way campaign and other fundraisers in 2008. Oct-Nov are the months of community giving. We appreciate your continued support to Vibha through the United Way campaign.

United Way across the country bring diverse people and resources together to address the most urgent issues their communities face. Through unique partnerships and approaches, United Way mobilizes resources beyond the dollars that are pledged through their fundraising efforts.

You can contribute to Vibha - Help them Grow through United Way community giving campaign (http://www.unitedway.com). Some of your employers match up to 100% of your donations. Vibha is listed on most major non-profit organization databases like www.guidestar.org.

Description:
Ganesha Pancharatna composed by Sri Aadi Sankaracharya and sung in five Ragas. Lord Ganesha or Lord Vinayaka is the destroyer of obstacles. People worship him before starting on any task - for siddhi (success in a new task) and buddhi (intelligence). It is said that Ganesha was born when the eternal couple contemplated on "Om". Ganesha has four hands, an elephant's head (Gajavadana) and his chariot is a tiny mouse (Mushika). In his hands he carries a rope (to carry devotees to truth), an axe (to cut devotees' attachments), and a Modaka (to reward devotees for their spiritual activity). His fourth hand's palm is always extended to bless people. A unique combination of his elephant-like head and a quick moving mouse vehicle represents tremendous wisdom, intelligence and presence of mind.
