Project Spotlight: Sikshana

Sikshana, a project of the Sivasri Charitable Trust in Karnataka, India is a Vibha supported project. Sikshana is a model of intervention in Government schools in India aiming to improve the quality of primary education. Sikshana adopts Government primary schools formally and implements various measures to improve the quality of education. Vibha has funded ($19,826 in 2007) several aspects of the Sikshana project, and is in discussions with members of the trust on future funding opportunities.

Project Spotlight: Door Step School (DSS)

Door Step School (DSS) is a Vibha supported project in Pune, Maharashtra that identifies communities, like children of migrant workers, street children, children of fishermen etc, and tries to establish Non Formal Education (NFE) classes for them. The aim is to get them to the level where they can enroll in the regular school systems. Vibha has funded ($20,000 in 2007) the salaries of staff (teachers, supervisors and coordinators) and the costs of teaching aids and picnics/camps for the children.
